

48-hour indulgent adventure

From an island hop to spa treatments in Brisbane City, this itinerary covers your 48-hour Brisbane trip with all the best the city has to offer.

Day One

Check into Capri by Fraser. These 4.5-star apartments in the heart of Brisbane's CBD are the perfect HQ for your weekend getaway.

80 Albert St (cnr Mary St), The City.

Dinner: Eagle Street Pier, Brisbane City

Luckily your Albert St apartment means you have a host of restaurants within walking distance.

When your tummy starts to rumble, head straight down Mary St towards the river and you'll find the popular Eagle Street Pier dining precinct. Choose between the award-winning Jellyfish Restaurant, Sake, Pony Lounge & Dining, or celebrity chef Matt Moran's Riverbar & Kitchen and Aria.

Mid-morning: Tangalooma Island Resort

Your next adventure awaits. Jump in a taxi and check in at the Holt Street Wharf to catch the 75-minute launch to Tangalooma Island Resort. Take swimmers, your sunnies, spare shorts and tee. Your afternoon will be spent riding quad bikes over the sand dunes, feeding wild dolphins and chilling out on the beach enjoying drinks and canapés as the sun sets. By the time you return to the city at 9.15pm, you'll be ready for bed.

Day cruises depart at 7am or 10am and return at 4pm or 7pm (or a little later in summer). The standard day cruise departs at 7am and 10am, returning at 4pm. The day cruise inclusive of dolphin feeding and watching the dolphin feeding, returns at 7pm.
